

SJB Urban has prepared Urban Context Reports for a number of significant development projects in important, strategic sites, including Southbank and Melbourne's CBD. These Reports incorporate broad analysis of the urban context and Urban Design Advice and Guidelines to inform the development of the architectural design, to assist in the statutory planning process.

